

Playing like The Beatles

(By Finn Pedersen)

Verse 1

Well I was nine years old when I got my first guitar
I tried to play it soft, but it didn't take me far
I tried different kind of music, nothing seemed to move my heart
But when I heard the Rock'n Roll, I felt absolute ready to start

Verse 2

I tried to teach myself the electric guitar
I was sure that I was gone make a big, big star
But the training was hard, and my fingertips were all in big pain
But me and a couple of friends we finally got around to start a band.

Chorus

And we were playing like sissies playing like sissies
We were playing like sissies
And nobody wanted to hear.

Verse 3

Well my sister bought a brand new piano one day
She was determent to get into the band and play
And she was playing like an angel, we couldn't believe our ears
She was singing as well, and she looked a lot like Britney Spears

Chorus

and she was playing like an angel playing like an angel she was playing like an angel
And everybody loved her sound

Solo (Guitar or piano. Pref. jazzy piano)

Playing like The Beatles

(By Finn Pedersen)

Verse 4

Well the band was quiet successful. And we played all over the world
On a China concert I found myself a girl
She was cute and sexy and loved to listen to the band
She was easy to talk with and could always understand

Chorus

And we were playing like the Beatles
We were playing like The Beatles
Yes we were playing like the Beatles and everybody loved our sound

Chorus

And we were playing like the Beatles
Playing like The Beatles
Yes we were playing like the Beatles
and everybody loved our sound

Jamming 2 Rounds

Chorus

And we were playing like the Beatles
Playing like The Beatles
Yes we were playing like the Beatles
and everybody loved our sound

Outtro

Playing like The Beatles, yeah, yeah
Playing like The Beatles, yeah, yeah
Playing like The Beatles
And everybody loved to hear: yeah, yeah, yeah

OUTTRO should be sung in four voices, and form an A⁶ on the last yeah
