

Don't You Think

Vers 1 Sitting in the backseat of my car not getting far I need somebody to drive Standing outside my own house
I'm gone sell 30 years of memories to hell

Refrain Don't you think that I deserve some more than a life, behind a closed door don't you think that I deserve some more
than a life, behind a closed door

Vers 2 Standing in my dining room feeling very sad Why did everything has to go so bad Tears are running from my eyes I don't know what to do
This house is so missing you

Refrain Don't you think that I deserve some more
Than a life, behind a closed door
Don't you think that I deserve some more
Than a life, behind a closed door

Don't You Think

Solo

Vers 3 Guess I have to straighten up and take it like a man
But I'm not sure if I can But it's pretty clear to me what I have to do so I'm parking my van

Refrain Don't you think that I deserve some more
than a life, behind a closed door
Don't you think that I deserve some more
than a life, behind a closed door
Don't you think that I deserve some more
than a life, behind a closed door
Don't you think that I deserve some more
than a life, behind a closed do__or

Outro