About D'Angelos and Denetrick

As the CEO of NEOO Partners, D'Angelos provides the executive level guidance of NEOO's vision through strategic partnership, market expansion, and client services. In his work, D'Angelos is responsible for delivering executive-level commitment across projects by leveraging over 15 years of industry experience in real estate development, finance, long-range planning, and client advisory services. D'Angelos has a Master's Degree in Urban and Regional Planning from Jackson State University and a Planning and Community Development Bachelor's degree from St. Cloud State University.

As the Head of Planning and Engagement at NEOO, Denetrick leads complex projects through empathetic and data-informed processes to elevate the human experience. He amplifies rich storytelling and transparency to the public by leveraging over 10 years of industry experience in community organizing, public arts, and cultural placemaking. In 2018, Denetrick co-founded NEOO with an intense focus on ensuring voices of diverse communities are brought to the front of the room and that outcomes were tied to needs of the community. Denetrick has a Master of Urban and Regional Planning and a Bachelor's Degree in Business and Fashion Studies from the University of Minnesota.
