

MURP Speaker Series

Thursday, March 16, 2023

2:15-4:00pm, Wilkins Room, Humphrey School 215

Greg Russ will present Public Housing, do we get a second chance? History, Reform, and Opportunity at the New York City Housing Authority based on his experience as the CEO of the New York City Housing Authority (NYCHA).

2:15-2:30pm – Gather (light refreshments provided)

2:30-3:30pm – Program

3:30-4:00pm – Informal conversation

About Greg

Greg Russ, Principal at Pine Street Partners, is a nationally recognized leader in transforming public housing. He most recently served as CEO of the New York City Housing Authority (NYCHA), with an annual budget of $4 billion and 11,000 employees. While there, he successfully created and led the passage of the first in the nation Public Housing Preservation Trust, which seeks to recapitalize over 110,000 housing units.

Greg has had a life-long career in public housing and he previously served as CEO of the Minneapolis Public Housing Authority, Executive Director of the Cambridge Housing Authority, and in leadership roles in the Chicago and Philadelphia Housing Authorities.

