

MURP Speaker Series

Thursday, February 2, 2023

2:15-4:00pm, Wilkins Room, Humphrey School 215

Please join us for the first MURP Speaker Series event of the semester! Visiting Professor of Practice Peter Hendee Brown will present Reflections on Three Real Estate Booms: How capital drives design, production, and the shape of the city.

2:15-2:30pm – Gather, light refreshments provided

2:30-3:30pm – Program

3:30-4:00pm – Informal conversation

About Peter

Peter Hendee Brown, FAIA, FAICP, Ph.D., has worked in architecture, city government, real estate development, and, since 2005, as an independent development consultant to public, private and non-profit organizations. Since 2010 he has consulted to the City of Minneapolis on the planning, design, and construction of US Bank Stadium, the Commons, Nicollet Mall, Hennepin Avenue, Peavey Plaza, and the City's new Public Service Building and he is currently facilitating the Mayor's Vibrant Storefront Working Group as a consultant to CPED. Peter is the author of two books: How Real Estate Developers Think and America's Waterfront Revival. Peter has been teaching at the Humphrey School since 2008 as an adjunct and he has recently accepted an appointment as Visiting Professor of Practice.

Artwork credit: 432 Park Avenue, New York, NY. Design and rendering by Rafael Viñoly Architects.

HUMPHREY SCHOOL
OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS
UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA